++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy start with some rain then largely dry and bright.

Today:
A rather cloudy start with outbreaks of rain, especially across western parts, but brighter conditions with sunny spells spread north this morning. Most places then dry this afternoon with sunny spells, although a few showers are likely, especially in west. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Any showers in west soon dying out then dry with some late sunshine. Cloud increases overnight with outbreaks of occasionally heavy rain spreading north. Increasing risk of east coast haar. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
A mostly cloudy morning with outbreaks of rain clearing north. Brighter spells are expected to develop in afternoon, especially in west, along with a few heavy showers. Easy coast haar. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Continuing showery with clear or sunny spells, the showers, most frequent and heaviest in west, may merge into longer spells of rain. Risk of east coast haar throughout. Becoming cooler.
